

MONTHS PASS AWAY

NEW FRIENDS,

AND A TODAY FADES

LAUGHING ...

INTO A YESTERDAY.

A NEW DAY DAWNS

THE YOUNG GROW OLD,

BRINGING SUNSHINE.

YOUTHFUL IDEAS —

THE CLOUDS DARKEN

FAR-REACHING GOALS —

AND BRING RAIN.

BECOME REALITY

A SMILE SO QUICKLY

OR

CHANGES

NOTHING.

TO A TEAR.

THE WHITE FLAKES FALLING

THE OCEAN CRASHES

NOW SO LOUD

UPON THE BEACH

THEY DROWN

UNTIL

THE DRIFTING LEAVES OF

THE SANDS

A HAZY AUTUMN DAY.

SHRINK,

THE SNOW DISAPPEARS —

SHRINK ...

THE COLD, BITTER NIGHTS

SECONDS,

CHANGE

SEASONS,

UNTIL WE HEAR THE SPRING

YEARS,

SINGING, WAKING US

WHIRLING QUICKLY.

TO THE HOT SWEET NIGHTS OF SUMMER.

FAST —

FRIENDS LAUGHING —

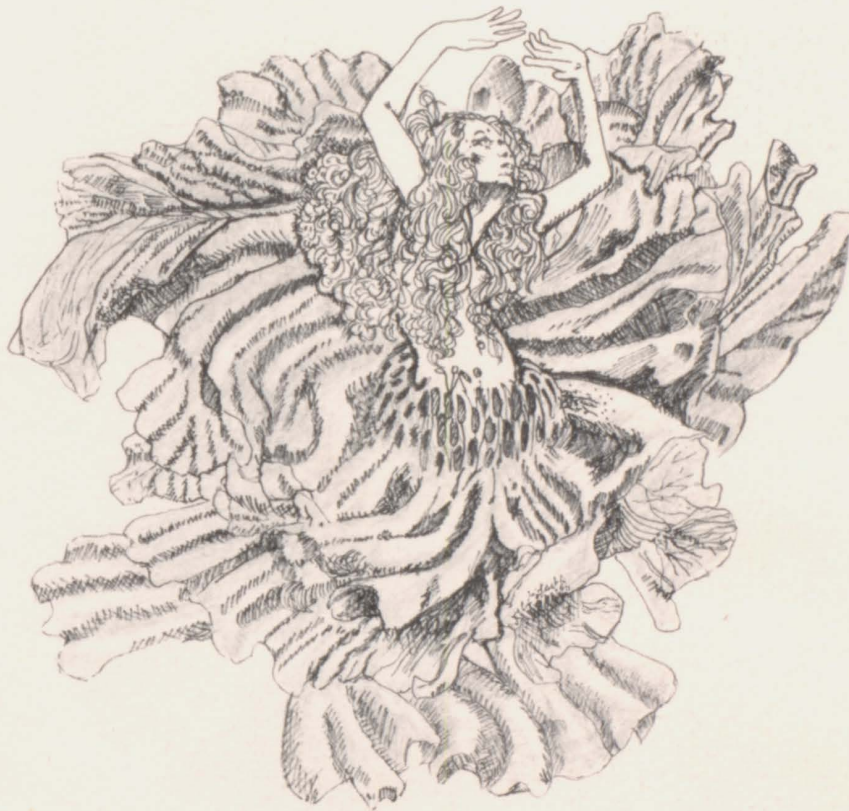

FASTER

CRYING —

LIFE IS GONE.

CHANGING

A MOMENT
A SOUND
A MEMORY.
TIME HERE —
GONE
NEVER TO BE CAPTURED
AGAIN.
AND ROUND THE WORLD SPINS,
EACH FLYING SECOND
HOLDING ITS TREASURE FOR US TO CAPTURE.
THE SUN RUNS ACROSS THE SKY,
TAKING THAT MOMENT
AS IT FLIES WITH THE GOLDEN RAYS
GROWING OLDER WITH EACH LIGHT-FILLED HOUR UNTIL THE MOON PEERS DOWN AND SMILES, SMILES
UPON THE EVER-TURNING HOME.
WALKING RUNNING, STUMBLING IN DARKNESS,
WE GRASP
FOR A TIME — A SECOND
WHEN LAUGHTER FILLED
THE AIR.
BUT IT IS GONE.

REACH FOR THAT MOMENT

EVEN IF

EYES ARE FILLED

WITH BLINDING GOLD,

FOR TOO SOON

WILL EYES HOLD

DARKNESS

AND HATE

WILL TAKE THE HAND OF YOUR HEART.

FADING SHADOWS ON A BREATHING PLANET

NEVER SEEING ANOTHER,

ONLY

A SPEEDING BLUR —

TOO MANY

ALIKE.

TURN —

AND THE SCENE CHANGES,

EVER CHANGING,

TIME STANDS STILL

NEVER.

SNOW COVERS THE GROUND

TODAY

YET

TODAY

THE LEAVES ARE FULL AND GREEN.

LOOK,

LOOK CLOSE,

BUT

SEE

AND DO.

RISE

MY FRIENDS,

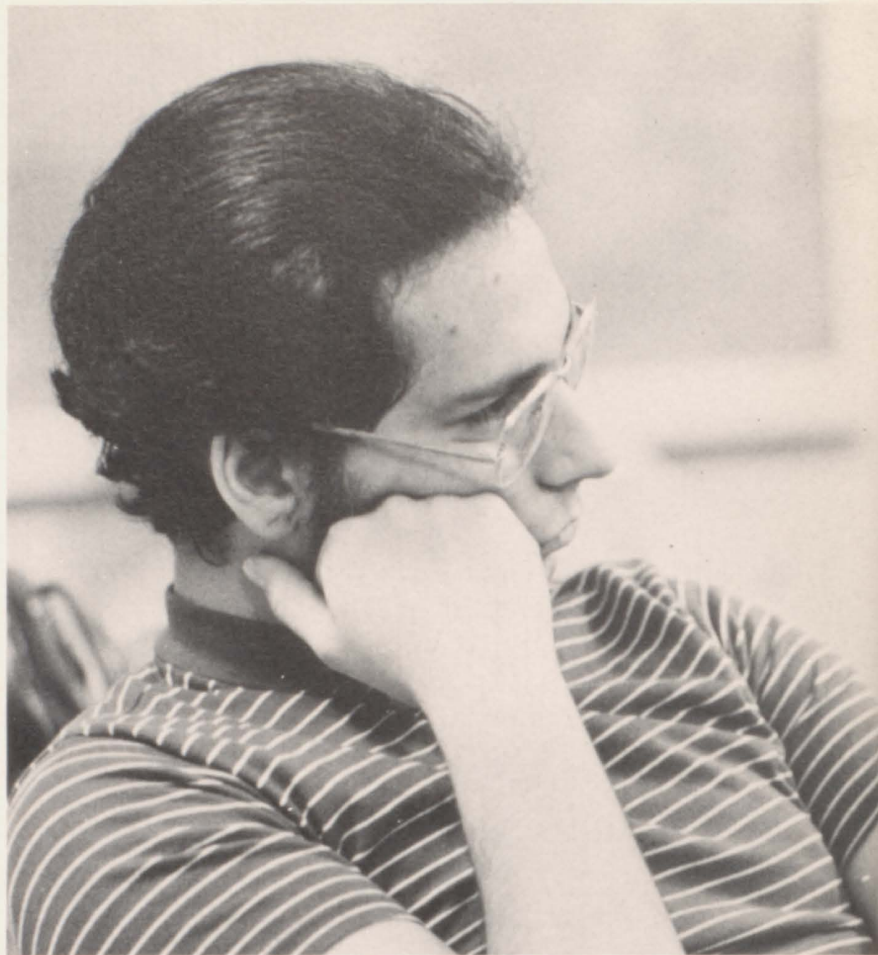

AND DANCE WITH

THE SECONDS OF TIME.

“TO EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON,

AND A TIME TO EVERY PURPOSE UNDER HEAVEN.”

DEDICATION

We dedicate this yearbook to the individuality of man and the unity of mankind; to a world where each person will be a single, separate human being working for and wanting the good of all; to a world where each person will realize the importance of unity but will strive to achieve it without sacrificing his individuality.

We dedicate ourselves to working for this world of peace and harmony by using our knowledge of the past — its mistakes and successes — and our understanding of human nature. We recognize that each individual has his gift to offer to the world. But it will be worthless unless we work together, never suppressing a fellow human being.

To Thee we proudly sing.
In honor of thy banner
Our joyous voices ring.
Let liberty, with loyalty
Eternally light the sky.

A black and white photograph of a misty forest. Several tall, slender trees with bare branches stand in a line, their forms softened by the fog. The ground is covered in a layer of fallen leaves or grass, also appearing misty. The overall mood is quiet and contemplative.

*Now the darkness only stays at nighttime
In the morning it will fade away
Daylight is good at arriving at the right time
No it's not always going to be this gray
All things must pass, all things must pass away . . .
None of life's strings can last
So we must be on our way and face another day.*

*"We, who are on the road, must have a code that we can live by.
And as we become ourselves, the past becomes only a good-bye."*

FACULTY

"Teach your children well; their fathers' hell will slowly go by.

DR. ELIAS LEVINSON
Adviser

Producing a yearbook is a job undertaken by few and unappreciated by many. Right now I want to show my appreciation to the few who spent practically all their waking hours working on the 1971 VALKYRIAN.

My first thanks go to the major editors who worked together on coming up with and carrying out the ideas that were incorporated in the yearbook. They withstood the many pressures that are a part of the job. The countless other people who proofread, typed, and took part in the yearbook sales were a great benefit in alleviating the heavy work load. I want also to thank Dr. Levinson, our adviser, for his assistance in directing the production of the VALKYRIAN. I want to give special attention to the photographers who have greatly contributed to the yearbook's new visual concepts.

The staff has tried to get a message across to the students of Vailsburg High School. This message can be applicable to everyone's life, and the VALKYRIAN staff are aware of that fact — for they have thought it and lived it.

Again, thanks to all the teachers and students who have helped to publish the 1971 VALKYRIAN.

Peace and happiness,

SENIOR ACHIEVEMENTS

FRESH- MAN!

Let's take a stroll down memory lane and look Vailsburg from 1967 to 1971.

And do you remember, "Dear friends", good attendance, class participation, and getting involved?

The beginning. And people laughed and laughed and laughed

Wide-eyed freshmen were greeted by long-haired freaks.

SOPHO- MORE YEAR

Spacious gym overflowed as we clinched our first city title!

By our second year we finally became immune to the school lunches.

Would you believe this was Mr. Adubato??!??

Sophomore year we were by our friendly security

(IN SOPHOMORE YEAR WE WERE PROMISED I.D. CARDS.)

We met Mr. Monprode, our principal, for the first time.

JUNIOR YEAR

Junior year was a year of rapid change. It was a kaleidoscope of all phases of society and the VHS students were a part of it all.

Our minds were expanded at the Assembly Committee's Book Fair.

Here are the streams of co-operative students coming to or leaving from the scene of the strike . . . er . . . disturbance.

Vailsburg High School paid its respects to one of the great men of our time.

SENIOR YEAR

approached, the seniors knew that the parole board would en weeks personal friendships were forgotten and armies were formed. Again ents of VHS were in the DMZ.

Our class president leading 313 seniors

(WE RECEIVED OUR ID CARDS ON APRIL FOOL'S DAY — THINK ABOUT THAT.)

WHERE ARE YOU GOING NOW, MY FRIEND?
WHERE WILL YOU BE TOMORROW?
WILL YOU BRING ME HAPPINESS?
WILL YOU BRING ME SORROW?
